CORAM : R.S. MOHITE,J.
DATED : 09/1/2006.

P.C.

1. Heard A.P.P.

2. This is an appeal filed by the State challenging a judgment and order passed by the Chief Metropolitan Magistrate, Solapur dated 12.7.2004 acquitting the accused for an offence under Section 498A read with 34 of the I.P.C. From perusal of the impugned judgment, it is seen that cogent and acceptable reasons are given for the acquittal of the accused. The prosecutrix Ratnaprabha has changed her version given by her in the F.I.R. In the F.I.R. there was no reference of any demand said to have been made by the accused to her parents. In her evidence that she has talked about the demand of Rs.15,000/- was made. It has been rightly held that cruelty has not been proved. In my view not a fit case to interfere in the impugned judgment. Hence, leave refused. Consequently the appeal stands dismissed.
